

Programme for Friends of Lye Valley Open Day Sunday 25 June 2017
North Fen 11am–4pm FREE

11am and 2pm Guided strolls down the Lye Valley led by Dr Judy Webb

Meet live reptiles & amphibians with Rod D'Ayala

A chance to get up close to real frogs toads, newts, lizards & grass snakes with the expert and learn more about them

Austrian Scythe demonstrations on the fen 11am–12 noon & 2–3pm

Family & Kids' Activities

Fossick with fossils with Oxfordshire Geology Trust (tbc) or

What lives in our ponds? A look at the Lye Valley's pond wildlife

Shelter-building with cut brush for kids & carers

Looking for flowers and minibeasts in the drier area from entrance to around the BBOWT sign (not in the fens!)

Sweep netting & putting bugs in pots to examine and identify with Dr Judy Webb

Displays & information about the Lye Valley

Refreshments Teas, soup, cakes, cream teas in Bullingdon Community Centre on Peat Moors OX3 7HS hosted by the Hogley BogStars

Loos at the Bullingdon Community Centre on Peat Moors OX3 7HS

Getting there:

On foot: take the footpath marked off The Slade adjacent to 173 The Slade OX3 7HP. Walk downhill and turn left to reach the Valley.

Bus: No.4, 4A or 4B bus to Wood Farm. Get off near the play park on Girdlestone Road. Or No.10 get off at Wood Farm stop. There may be some parking at Bullingdon Community Centre, Peat Moors OX3 7HS

